Electoral History of British Columbia
Supplement 1987–2001

Preface

This supplement to the Electoral History of British Columbia, 1871–1986, has been compiled to meet requests from clients and researchers who enjoyed the benefits of the easy access to an overview of electoral activities in British Columbia in the original volume. The Supplement brings that information up to the general election of 2001.

The data in the Supplement, was, like the original volume, gathered from a variety of sources, but focused primarily on the Statement of Votes for the Province, the Journals of the Legislative Assembly and the Statutes of British Columbia. The Supplement lists the results of the general elections, by-elections and other electoral activities, such as recall and referenda initiatives from 1987 to 2001.

We hope the Supplement will be as useful to users as the original volume proved to be. Maedythe Martin undertook the task of compiling the information and the Chief Electoral Officer, Robert Patterson arranged for his staff to vet the information. For all your efforts: my thanks.

INTRODUCTION

This volume is a supplement to the Electoral History of British Columbia, 1871 – 1986, continuing the historical record until the end of 2001. It begins with by-elections that followed the 1986 General Election and concludes with the 2001 General Election and legislative changes up to the end of 2001.

A comparison of the two volumes is instructive. There are more women Members in the last 15 years than in the previous 115 and even a casual reading of the list of elected candidates shows how the growing diversity of the Province has become part of its political life. The dominance of Scottish surnames found in early provincial elections has evolved into a list of names reflecting the present population of the Province.

British Columbia has a long history of independent and varied political views and this continued in the period covered by this volume: candidates representing no less than 22 political parties were nominated in the 2001 General Election.

Legislative change has led to the inclusion of three new sections not found in the Electoral History of British Columbia, 1981 – 1986. These list Initiative Petitions and Recall Petitions issued under the Recall and Initiative Act and regulations issued under the revised Election Act.

BY-ELECTIONS, 1987 – 1991

Electoral History of British Columbia, 1871 – 1986 concludes with the General Election of 1986. This section begins at that point and documents the by-elections that occurred up to the General Election of 1991.

These were:

- Boundary-Similkameen 8 June 1988
- Alberni 19 November 1988
- Nanaimo 15 March 1989
- Vancouver-Point Grey 15 March 1989
- Cariboo 20 September 1989
- Oak Bay-Gordon Head 13 December 1989

REFERENDUM RESULTS

In conjunction with the General Election of 1991, voters were asked two questions:

A: Should voters be given the right, by legislation, to vote between elections for the removal of their member of the Legislative Assembly?

YES	1,090,023	80.89%
NO	257,522	19.11%
REJECTED	135,363

B: Should voters be given the right, by legislation, to propose questions that the government of British Columbia must submit to voters by referendum?

YES	1,095,100	83.02%
NO	223,902	16.98%
REJECTED	163,906

For referendum results by electoral district, refer to the section entitled Recall and Initiative Referendum immediately following the General Election results by electoral district.

PLEBISCITES AND REFERENDA

POPULAR NAME: Recall and Initiative Referendum

DATE: 17 October 1991

CONCURRENT ELECTORAL ACTIVITY: General Election

ENABLING LEGISLATION: Referendum Act, RSBC 1996, c. 400

PURPOSE: To ascertain the view of the voters on two questions:

QUESTION A

Should voters be given the right, by legislation, to vote between elections for the removal of their member of the Legislative Assembly?

YES	1,090,023	80.89%
NO	257,522	19.11%
REJECTED	135,363

QUESTION B

Should voters be given the right, by legislation, to propose questions that the government of British Columbia must submit to voters by referendum?

YES	1,095,100	83.02%
NO	223,902	16.98%
REJECTED	163,906

LEGISLATIVE CONSEQUENCES: Passage of Recall and Initiative Act (RSBC 1996 c. 398), into force 24 February 1995.

Detailed Referendum results are included with the results of the General Election of 1991.

INITIATIVE PETITIONS

The Recall and Initiative Act (RSBC 1996, c. 398) permits voters in British Columbia to propose new laws or initiate changes to existing laws.

Any registered voter can apply to have a petition issued by the Chief Electoral Officer. If more than 10% of the registered voters in each of the electoral districts, who were registered to vote on the date the petition was issued, sign an initiative petition within the 90-day canvassing period, the Chief Electoral Officer sends a copy of the verified petition and draft Bill to the Select Standing Committee on Legislative Initiatives.

The Select Standing Committee must meet within 30 days of receipt of the petition and draft Bill. From their first meeting, the Committee has 90 days to consider the legislative proposal and either table a report recommending introduction of the draft Bill, or refer the initiative to the Chief Electoral Officer for an initiative vote.

The Recall and Initiative Act was brought into force on 24 February 1995.

Petition I95001: An Act to Balance the Budget and Retire Provincial Debt

Proponent: Thomas McArthur
Opponent: None registered
Petition Issued: November 20, 1995

Petition I95002: An Act to Remove School Tax Levies from Residential Properties

Proponent: Terry Milne
Opponent: None registered
Petition Issued: December 11, 1995
Outcome: The petition was not returned by the proponent by the deadline of March 11, 1996.

Petition I95003: An Act Regarding Pensions for Members of the Legislative Assembly

Proponent: Patrick D. Finnigan
Opponent: None registered
Petition Issued: The petition was scheduled for issue on December 11, 1995 but was withdrawn by the proponent on October 30, 1995.
Outcome: None.

Petition I96001: An Act to Prohibit the Hunting of Bears

Proponent: Paul George
Opponent group: Wildlife Management Alliance
Petition Issued: September 9, 1996
Outcome: The Petition was returned on December 9, 1996 with 88,357 signatures falling short of the 222,272 signatures required.

Petition IP-2000-001: Child Services Equality Act

Proponent: Jim McDermott
Opponent: None registered
Petition Issued: May 23, 2000
Outcome: The Petition was returned on August 21, 2000 with 4,325 signatures falling short of the 202,984 signatures required.

The number of signatures required for individual petitions varies as it is based on the number of registered voters who were registered to vote on the date the petition was issued.

RECALL PETITIONS

The Recall and Initiative Act (RSBC 1996, c. 398) allows voters in British Columbia to remove a Member of the Legislative Assembly between elections.

Any individual can apply to the Chief Electoral Officer for a Petition for the recall of the Member for the electoral district in which the applicant is registered to vote. A Member cannot be recalled during the first 18 months after election.

If the application for a Petition is complete and meets the requirements of the Act, a petition is issued and the proponent has 60 days to collect signatures from 40% of the voters who were registered to vote in the Member's electoral district at the last election and who are currently registered to vote in British Columbia.

If the petition is successful, the Member ceases to hold office and a By-Election must be called within 90 days.

British Columbia is the only jurisdiction in Canada with recall legislation. The Recall and Initiative Act was brought into force on February 24, 1995.

CHIEF ELECTORAL OFFICERS AND REGISTRARS GENERAL OF VOTERS

Harry M. Goldberg	Appointed Chief Electoral Officer by Order in Council, 4 March 1980. Rescinded 2 May 1990.
Robert A. Patterson	Appointed Chief Electoral Officer by Order in Council, 2 May 1990.
	Appointed Chief Electoral Officer as an independent officer of the Legislature, 29 April 1996, following revision of the Election Act (RSBC 1996, c. 106).

In earlier years the offices of Chief Electoral Officer and Registrar General of Voters were jointly held by the Chief Electoral Officer. For a brief history of the two offices, see Electoral History of British Columbia, 1871-1986, p. 427.

The Election Act (RSBC 1996, c. 106) no longer provides for the office of Registrar General of Voters. The function of maintaining the provincial voters list is now included in the overall responsibilities of the Chief Electoral Officer.

ROYAL AND SPECIAL COMMISSIONS ON ELECTIONS

1987

Royal Commission on Electoral Boundaries

Appointed: April 9, 1987 (Order-In-Council 690) under the Inquiry Act, Part II.

Commissioner: Judge Thomas Kemp Fisher sitting as sole Commissioner.

The Royal Commission was originally appointed to consider only electoral districts that returned two members to the Legislature. This mandate was amended on 17 September 1987, to a consideration of all electoral districts and their boundaries.

The Preliminary Report of Proposed Boundaries for British Columbia Electoral Districts was submitted on 24 May 1988. Following further public consultation, a Final Report was submitted in December, 1988 which recommended 75 single-member electoral districts with no more than a 25% variation from strict electoral equality.

These recommendations were brought into effect 19 September 1991 with the dissolution of the 34th Legislative Assembly.

1997

Electoral Boundaries Commission

Appointed: December 3, 1997 under the Electoral Boundaries Commission Act (RSBC 1996, c. 107 and amendments) to provide for an independent, non-partisan, statutory commission which would review the Province's electoral boundaries on a regular basis.

Chair, Judge Josiah Wood, Q.C., Commissioner Rev. Katherine Hough and Commissioner Robert Patterson.

The Commission reported to the Legislature 3 December 1998 with amendments submitted 3 June 1999 after a period of public consultation. It recommended an increase from 75 to 79 electoral districts to compensate for population growth in the Lower Mainland. Several other districts were realigned.

These recommendations were implemented in a new Electoral Districts Act (SBC 1999 c. 31) which received Royal Assent on 15 July 1999 with the new electoral districts coming into effect 18 April 2001 with the dissolution of the 36th Parliament.

SELECT LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEES ON ELECTIONS

B.C. Legislative Assembley. Special Committee on Electoral Boundaries

A Special Committee was approved by the Legislature, 22 June 1988 to consider the recommendations of the Royal Commission on Electoral Boundaries (Fisher).

Chair, Jim Rabbitt (MLA, Yale-Lillooet), Deputy Chair, Angus Ree (MLA, North Vancouver-Capilano).

The Special Committee submitted its report to the Legislature on 29 March 1989 without making any specific recommendations.

B.C. Legislative Assembly. Special Committee to Appoint the Chief Electoral Officer

The Election Act (RSBC 1996 C.106) requires that the Chief Electoral Officer be appointed on the unanimous recommendation of a special committee of the Legislature. A committee was struck and reported on 20 December 1995. The report was accepted by the Legislature on 25 April 1996 and Robert A. Patterson was subsequently appointed as Chief Electoral Officer and an officer of the Legislature.

Chair, Mike Farnworth (MLA, Port Coquitlam), Deputy Chair, Gary Farrell-Collins (MLA, Fort Langley-Aldergrove).

CANDIDATES WHO RAN IN MORE THAN ONE ELECTORAL DISTRICT

None. The last candidate to run in more than one electoral district was in 1933. The current Election Act, Section 52 (2), does not permit an individual to run in more than one electoral district.

CONTROVERTED AND VOIDED ELECTIONS

None. A voided election requires the holding of a new election. A controverted election sets aside the original election results and declares a different candidate elected.

ELECTED CANDIDATES WHO DID NOT TAKE THEIR SEAT IN THE LEGISLATURE

None.

MULTI-MEMBER DISTRICTS

None. British Columbia has a history of multiple members representing a single electoral district. In the first General Election (1871) two districts were each represented by six members. Multi-member electoral districts were discontinued following the 1986 General Election and the subsequent work of the Royal Commission on Electoral Boundaries (1987) and the coming into force of the Electoral Districts Act (1990) when the 35th Parliament was dissolved, 19 September 1991.

REGISTERED VOTERS WHO VOTED IN MULTI-MEMBER DISTRICTS

None. Multi-member electoral districts were discontinued following the 1986 General Election and the subsequent work of the Royal Commission on Electoral Boundaries (1987 and the coming into force of the Electoral Districts Act (1990) when the 35th Parliament was dissolved, 19 September 1991.

ELECTORAL HIGHLIGHTS 1986 – 2001

1986 First woman becomes Premier (Rita Johnson, Surrey-Newton): elected by Government Caucus following resignation of Premier William Vander Zalm.

1988 Royal Commission on Electoral Boundaries recommends the number of electoral districts be increased to 75 from 52 and the 17 multi-member member ridings be eliminated thus increasing the number of seats from 69 to 75.

1991 Royal Commission on Electoral Boundaries (Fisher) recommendations are implemented in the 1991 General Election held with 75 single-member electoral districts. This was the first British Columbia a General Election held without multi-member electoral districts.

Voters in the General Election approve a referendum providing a mechanism to recall sitting Members and to bring citizen initiatives before the Legislature or to province-wide referendum.

1992 Elections Amendment Act (SBC 1992, c. 72) lowers the voting age to 18 from 19 and eases restrictions on voting day registration.

1995 First comprehensive revision of Election Act (SBC 1995 c. 51) since 1920 is adopted.

Elections BC becomes an independent office of the Legislature.

The Recall and Initiative Act (SBC 1994 c. 56) comes into force providing a mechanism to recall sitting Members and to bring citizen initiatives before the Legislature or to province-wide referendum.

British Columbia is the only jurisdiction in Canada with recall legislation.

1996 Chief Electoral Officer is unanimously recommended by a multi-party Special Committee of the Legislature (Robert A. Patterson), and appointed as an officer of the Legislature.

1997 First petitions to recall sitting MLAs are authorized under the Recall and Initiative Act. These are ultimately unsuccessful failing to gather the required number of signatures set by the Act.

The first Commission is appointed under the Electoral Boundaries Commission Act (SBC 1989 c. 65) chaired by Josiah Wood. Subsequent Commissions to be appointed in the first Session of the Legislature after every second General Election to make recommendations on electoral boundary changes.

1999 Recommendations of the Electoral Boundaries Commission are implemented by the Electoral Districts Act (SBC 1999 c. 31) increasing the number of seats from 75 to 79.

First postal enumeration replaces the door-to-door canvassing process.

2000 First Indo-Canadian becomes Premier (Ujjal Dosanjh, Vancouver-Kensington): elected by Party convention following resignation of Premier Glen Clark.

Supreme Court of British Columbia upholds a challenge to the Election Act limits on third party spending and publication of polling data: 9 February 2000. Sections 235, 236, 237 and 238 of the Election Act are ruled to contravene the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms and to be of no force and effect. Requirements for third party advertisers to register and to file financial disclosure reports remains in effect.

2001 Constitution (Fixed Election Dates) Amendment Act (SBC 2001 c. 36) — to come into force by regulation — provides for fixed dates for general elections: second Tuesday in the 4th calendar year following a General Election.
